EMBRACE DIVERSITY – EMPLOY PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Having a disability can make finding a job difficult, even when the job seeker has the necessary skills and qualifications and is ready to work. Leading employers know that building a truly diverse workforce means finding and welcoming qualified candidates with disabilities, understanding their individual differences and seeing their abilities.

AbilityLinks can help you fully embrace diversity by connecting you to this fast growing, yet largely untapped labor pool.

Let AbilityLinks help your business prepare for the future:

1) The AbilityLinks Consortium is a dynamic network of businesses, government agencies and nonprofits that help employ persons with disabilities by sharing information about job opportunities and job candidates.

2) AbilityLinks.org is a newly designed and upgraded award winning job opportunity website that makes it easy for businesses to post a job, search resumes, and obtain on-line personalized support.

3) AbilityLinks gives businesses (and job seekers) access to innovative educational programming including up-to-date tools on recruiting strategies, job accommodations, success stories, employment law, tax credits, health benefits for employees with disabilities and disability awareness.

4) AbilityLinks Job Seekers are unique individuals with a range of disabilities that can affect movement, hearing, speech, vision, mental health, learning and understanding. Their skills, talents, education, experience and qualifications range from entry level to administrative, technical, professional, managerial and executive.
